THE SYMBOL OF BOROVETS THE RILA HOTEL

www.rilaborovets.com

Situated at the foot of the ski slopes, the classic ski-in/ski-out Rila Hotel is a symbol of Borovets Resort. The four-star hotel was built in 1986 by a French contractor, based on the model of the French ski resort Les Arcs in the Alpine Savoie region.

After a complete renovation in 2015-2019, The Rila welcomes its guests with a brand new look and feel.

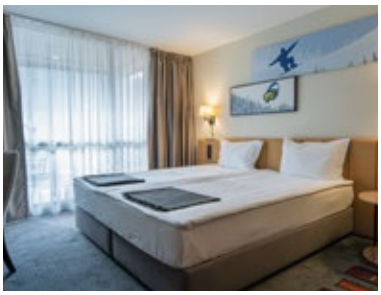

LOCATION

Only 70km away from Sofia International Airport (50 min. drive), the hotel is located in the highest Bulgarian mountain range – Rila (2925m), among the stunning ancient pine trees of Borovets Resort. With its more than 120 years of history, Borovets is the first mountain resort on the Balkan Peninsula, commissioned by the Bulgarian royal family, back in 1896.
